Systematic Monitoring of EFA
Training Modules for Asia and the Pacific

Workshop on SADC DQAF Assessment Review and Way Forward
5 - 7 June 2012, Maputo
A successful case of South-South Cooperation

- National University of Education Planning and Administration (India),
- Education Information and Statistics Center (Lao PDR),
- Academy of Educational Planning and Management (Pakistan),
- Ministry of Education (Brunei Darussalam),
- SEAMEO Regional Centre for Educational Innovation and Technology Commonwealth Avenue,
- Statistical Institute for Asia and the Pacific,
- ESCAP Statistics Division,
- UNESCO Nepal
- UIS Team of BKK, Delhi
- Individual experts
Use in strengthening capacities to monitor EFA among:

(a) Education administrators at all levels and school managers on how to better record, collect, analyse, disseminate and use school data;

(b) Education researchers, analysts and administrators on how to access, analyse and make full use of education data from population censuses and household surveys using statistical software/package.
The training modules

Introduction to EFA Monitoring

Modules A1-A5
EFA Monitoring and EMIS

Modules B1-B5
Use of Household Survey Data in Monitoring EFA

What else?

Trainer assisted  self-learning
Main targets users – School and sub-national education officials who are heavily involved in the monitoring of EFA through EMIS

Contents
- Module A1 – School Record Management
- Module A2 – Data Collection and Quality Control
- Module A3 – Education Indicators and Data Analysis
- Module A4 – Use of Information in Monitoring, Planning and Management
- Module A5 – Data flow and Information Dissemination
Modules B

- Main targets users – Education Statisticians and Planners at Central and Provincial level who are heavily involved in the preparation of EFA progress report

- Contents
  - Module B1 – Exploring Household Surveys for EFA Monitoring
  - Module B2 – Introducing to SPSS
  - Module B3 – Checking, Editing and Preparing Household Survey Data for Analysis
  - Module B4 – Basic Data Analysis Techniques in SPSS
  - Module B5 – Using Microsoft Excel to Enhance SPSS Outputs for Better Presentation
Where to find

- Link to the online version:
  http://www4.unescobkk.org/education/efatraining/

- Link to PDF:

- And link to web article: